
Paul Chong

Senior Vice President,
Retirement Plan Services

Common Purpose. Uncommon Commitment.

Paul Chong is senior vice president, CUNA Mutual Retirement Solutions (CMRS) at CUNA Mutual Group. In this role, Chong is responsible for leading the development of CUNA Mutual Group's Retirement Solutions business in both the credit union and small business markets. He oversees the company's teams in Madison, Wis. and Great Bend, Kan.

Chong brings more than 18 years of senior leadership experience in many segments of the retirement industry, with core expertise in sales and relationship management. He has a proven track record of creating and executing successful growth strategies at leading financial institutions.

Prior to joining CUNA Mutual Group, Chong served as executive director, head of institutional consulting and 401(k) at UBS, where he was directly responsible for UBS Wealth Management's $100-plus billion Institutional Consulting and Corporate Retirement business. In addition, Chong served as executive vice president for business development at Prudential Retirement and president of Corporate Market Groups for CitiStreet. He also spent time as an entrepreneur and owned businesses in Florida. Chong is a graduate of Boston University.
